Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments:

Atty. called to ask that the finality of the 3 October 2007 rejection be reversed. Atty. noted that his associate, Damond Vadnais, believed from the after-final interview on 15 February 2007 that the proposed amendment had merit. However, the 3 October 2007 rejection was made final on the first action after RCE.

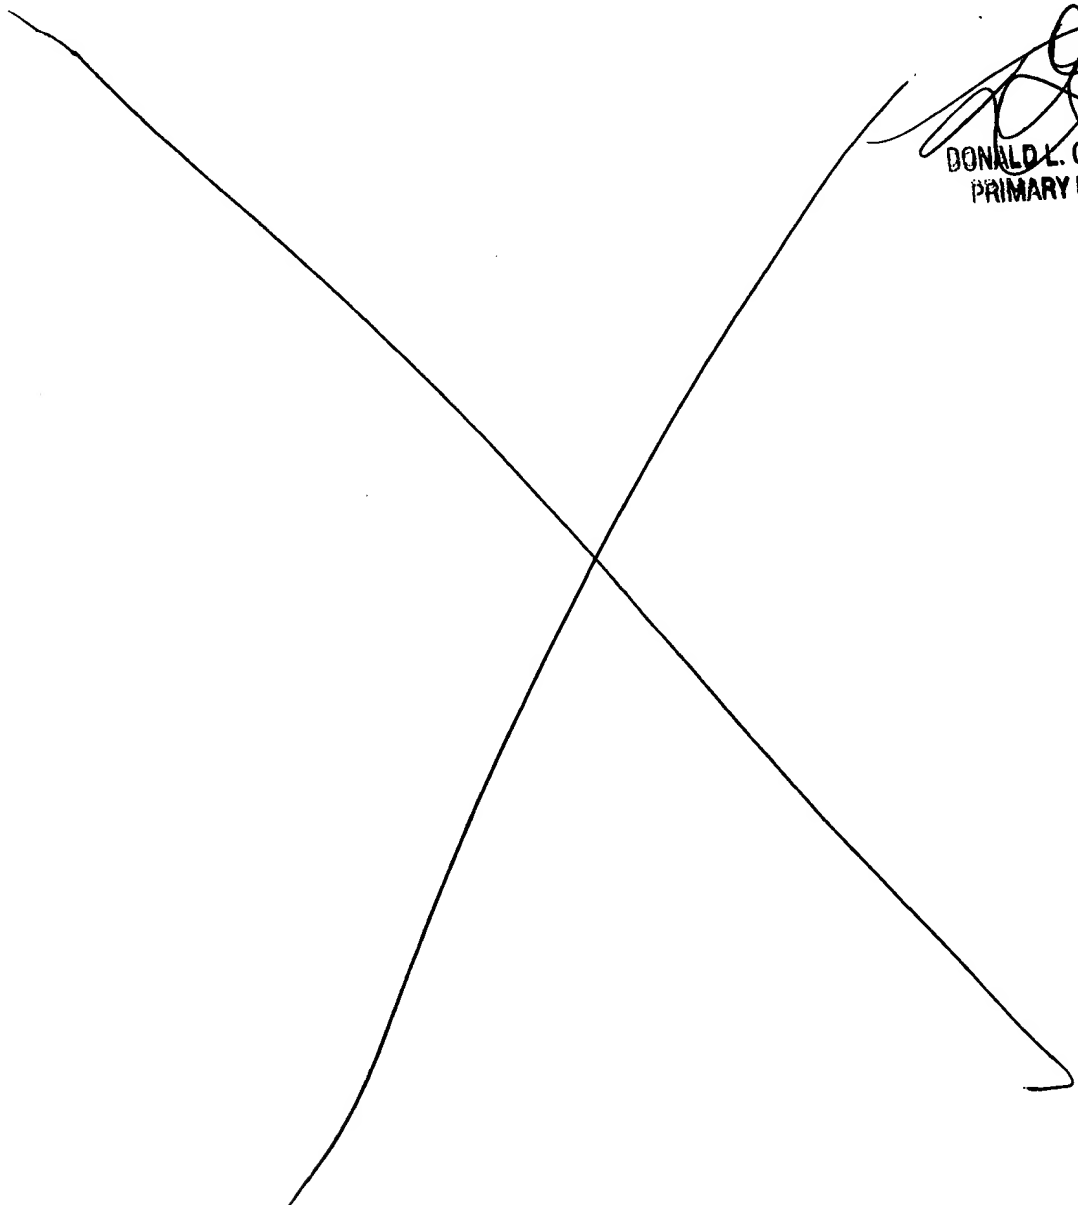

The summary of the 15 February 2007 interview says the following:

"The proposed amendment was discussed. In essence, applicant is now claiming that advertising information is being displayed when ANY non-advertising application is being used. The examiner noted that this does appear to be a potentially important limitation, although the prior art, including that made of record, would have to be searched".

This does not explicitly promise that the proposed amendment would overcome anything, but the examiner acknowledges that the tone leaves room for interpretation. Atty. Weaver noted that applicant might have submitted a different amendment if the interview had clearly suggested that the proposed amendment had no promise.

Accordingly, the primary examiner has agreed (1) to make the 3 October 2007 rejection non-final, and (2) to wait until 1 November 2007 before mailing said non-final rejection.

The examiner is not optimistic that the application can be put in condition for allowance, and accordingly suggests that applicant consider an appeal to the BPAI.
